STATEMENT OF INTENT:

The Coordinating Council for Honor Societies (CCHS) was founded at The University of Alabama in the spring of 1987 with the goals of increasing campus awareness of honor societies and encouraging open communication and collaboration between those societies. As a Council, we hold our member organizations accountable to the high standards of excellence in leadership, civic engagement, and community service expected of any honorary at The University of Alabama.

By signing below, I affirm that the above named honor society shares the goal of achieving excellence in leadership, civic engagement, and community service and seeks an active status within the Coordinating Council for Honor Societies. I further certify that the above named honor society will complete at least three (3) leadership, civic engagement, and community service events prior to The University of Alabama's Honors Day Ceremony for the current academic year.
